
THE UNIVERSITY OF TOLEDO LAW REVIEW

VOLUME 40

NUMBER 3

SPRING 2009

TABLE OF CONTENTS

ARTICLES

Giles v. California: Sixth Amendment Confrontation Right, Forfeiture by Wrongdoing, and a Misguided Departure from the Common Law and the Constitution

Ralph Ruebner and Eugene Goryunov.....577

How the Separation of Powers Doctrine Shaped the Executive

Louis J. Sirico, Jr.617

Almost too Good to Be True: Counter-Narratives in Four Films about Women Lawyers

James C. Foster, Melissa Holmes, Lindsey Pedersen and Lauren Radcliffe.....643

COMMEMORATING THE 200TH ANNIVERSARY OF THE FEDERAL PROHIBITION OF SLAVE IMPORTATION

Introduction

Benjamin Davis655

Slavery 1808 B.C.E.

Rabbi Alan M. Sokobin.....659

Dreamscapes: Descendants of Slaves Past, Present, and Future

Margaret Martin Barry667

People as Crops

Evelyn L. Wilson.....695

COMMENTS

Ohio's Collateral-Source Rule Following Robinson v. Bates and the Enactment of Ohio Revised Code Section 2315.20

Cara Q. Hanson711

| | |
|---|-----|
| The (Un)Constitutionality of State-Enacted Bankruptcy-Specific Exemptions: Using Ohio Revised Code Section 2329.66(A)(18) as a Mechanism for Analysis Edward Stechschulte | 761 |
| When MySpace Crosses the School Gates: The Implications of Cyberspeech on Students' Free-Speech Rights Tiffany Emrick | 785 |